THE AREAS WE HUNT IN

With our locations in the heart of South Africa's malaria-free Eastern Cape provinces, eZulu Adventures is an exceptional African hunting safari, spanning various privately owned biodiverse hunting areas. As home to arguably the widest variety of huntable species on the African continent, we offer our clients a natural and diverse (dangerous and plains) game hunting experience in South Africa. Travelling time between camps is no more than 2.5 hours which allows for scenic routes when driving from camp to camp.

From glorious animals that have roamed the African continent for hundreds of years to scenery untouched for thousands of years, eZulu Adventures encompasses large privately owned areas, holding a dramatic variety of biodiversity. Steep mountainous areas, to deep riverine valleys and open grass plains form part of our beautiful terrain; we are home to a multitude of game species from Cape Buffalo and White Rhino to the majestic Kudu and elusive Cape Bushbuck.

MOUNTAIN CAMP

The Winterberg mountain range along the Swartkei River is home to this pristine mountain hunting area. Set at the foot of the Winterberg mountains, the mountain camp ranges from 4000ft to 6000ft above sea level with 180 degree views certain to take your breath away. The beautiful terrain here varies from rugged deep gorges and cliffs to flat open plains offering some of the most breath-taking sunsets and sunrises. During winter, cold conditions can be expected with snow on the high mountains. History is told at every turn while staying at the mountain camp. From bushman paintings dating back well over 1,500 years depicting the hunters of old to the old wooden wheeled ox wagon that tells a story of the European settlers of the 1800s who claimed this land, grooming it into what we see today. Being in the family for over 6 generations, conservation efforts have nurtured this truly beautiful part of the world where sportsmen and sportswomen are spoilt by the quality of game and variety of scenery on their unique and exclusive South African safari hunt.

GIVING BACK...

The Ithemba vision was birthed in 2007 out of the need to afford young people, especially the previously disadvantaged and underprivileged the opportunity to an education of excellence, beginning in the preparatory and foundational phases and ending in the final year of secondary school. Such an education was to take place in the simplicity and beauty of country life. A true life giving community, made up of people from diverse ages and backgrounds, will form the continuous backdrop of the educational and developmental experience of each child. This community strives to nurture, comfort, and support and develop the talent and gifting of school children through holistic Christian based education.

iThemba Trust partners with Ezulu Adventures to bring visiting hunters from America and Europe to give back to the game-rich, hunting grasslands of the Eastern Cape by impacting the poor rural community that lives in these beautiful surroundings. The Trust has established its activities and projects on a 1000 hectare farm, Orange Grove, which is situated outside Tarkastad in the Eastern Cape of South Africa. The Trust aims to build on the existing school, outdoor centre and vegetable farming initiatives currently running on this farm, to establish a children's village for orphans and vulnerable children, and to continue to grow the impact and positive effect they are able to have on every area of a child and adult's life: school, sport, mentoring, conservation, health and wellness, further education and training, and sustainable job creation. iThemba Trust is registered as a NPO (065-781-NPO) and PBO (930031826) as well as a registered 501(C)3 foundation in the United States.
